

2015 Visiting Fellowship at Stockholm China Economic Research Institute, Stockholm School of Economics

The Stockholm China Economic Research Institute (SCERI) at the Stockholm School of Economics invites applications for a Visiting Fellowship for studies on the economies of East Asia. The Visiting Fellowship is a one-year research position for a junior or mid-career researcher. We welcome applicants from all fields with either a regional or country-specific focus. Researchers with an expertise in China or Southeast Asia (primarily Indonesia, Philippines, and/or Malaysia) are especially encouraged to apply.

The Fellow will take up the position in September 2015. SCERI expects the Visiting Fellow to be an active member of the research institute and contribute by publishing research on East Asia.

Qualified applicants will have a PhD in economics, finance, political science or related fields. The visiting fellow will receive a tax-free scholarship of SEK 23,000 per month.

Applicants shall submit the following material:

- Curriculum Vitae
- Cover Letter
- Research Proposal
- Work Samples (thesis, journal articles, and/or working papers)
- Contact information for two or three references

Applications shall be submitted by January 31, 2015 by email to malin.nilsson@hhs.se.

For more information on the fellowship, contact Program Coordinator Malin Nilsson at malin.nilsson@hhs.se
